Goldie or Mac as many of her friends call her, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio; but her family moved to Aurora, Indiana. After seven years they moved to Morgan Township, where she attended Taylor High School. Eventually

Goldie went to Sears on Reading Road as a buyer for the candy department, later other departments were added to her responsibilities. Goldie stayed with Sears for twenty-nine years. It was during this time that her fellow employees nicknamed her “Miss Mac”. These years Goldie enjoyed traveling to Chicago and New York on business trips and traveling throughout United States on vacations. Some of her fondest memories were playing tennis with Doris Day they moved to Cleves and then to Saylor Park. Goldie was raised by two of her sisters and their husbands. Goldie’s father was a casket maker and worked for Aurora Casket Company in Aurora, Indiana. Goldie being the youngest of nine was very close to her family. As Goldie grew up on farms, she enjoyed gardening, her neighbors and everything that a farm can offer a young girl who loved animals.

and helping her neighbors in Aurora during the depression and bringing them meals.

The person(s) who had the biggest influence in her life was actually her two sisters Martha and Carrie. They both taught her right from wrong while caring for her as one of their own. One of her fondest memories as a child was playing with her Eskimo-Spitz dog, Snowball. She also had a horse named Maude, who would help her get the cows gathered to milk. Goldie fondly remembers being a favorite among her neighbors, treating her as if she were there own child.

After graduating from Taylor, Goldie worked at A&P as an assistant manager for ten years. She then worked at Suburban Press in advertising sales. Improving her career, Actually all five sisters contributed in raising Goldie and were very special “mothers” to her. At present, Goldie is an avid reader and enjoys many of the Activities offered at Three Rivers. We are honored to have Goldie as one of our residents. If you haven’t met Goldie was of yet, please give her a Cheery Hello!
